- (1) The Thermal Bath shall allow guests to use the facilities of the Thermal Bath within the scope of the provisions of these bathing rules at their own risk.
- (2) Neither the Thermal Bath nor the staff can generally prevent bathing accidents. In particular, the guests themselves shall bear the risks associated with the exercise of the sport or stay in the bathing area.
- (3) The same applies to injuries and other interventions in the guest's personal sphere by other guests or other third parties not belonging to the staff of the Thermal Bath.
- (4) The Thermal Bath shall only assume the obligations vis-à-vis the guests set out below.

1.2. Opening hours and granting of access

- (1) The Thermal Bath shall allow guests to visit during the opening hours announced on the notice board or by the supervisory staff.
- (2) If the officially permitted number of visitors is exceeded, Therme St. Kathrein may, with the assistance of the responsible staff, prohibit the admission of further visitors. In such cases, those wishing to visit must expect waiting times. A basic daily quota of admissions is provided for annual, half-year and season ticket holders. If this quota is exhausted, annual, half-year and season ticket holders cannot claim a general right of admission. In this case, they shall be treated in the same way as day guests with regard to the order of admission when guest capacities become free.
- (3) The Thermal Bath reserves the right to refuse admission to persons whose admission to the baths appears questionable without giving reasons.

1.3. Condition and operation of facilities

- (1) The Thermal Bath shall be responsible for ensuring that the facilities are installed, operated and maintained in accordance with the regulations. In particular, the Thermal Bath shall comply with all applicable hygiene and safety regulations. The Thermal Bath shall have no further obligations.
- (2) As soon as the Thermal Bath becomes aware of a malfunction, defect or damage to a facility that no longer guarantees safe operation, the Thermal Bath shall immediately prohibit the use of the malfunctioning facility or restrict its use in an appropriate manner.
- (3) The bathers themselves are responsible for complying with the instructions of the staff in charge.

1.4. Monitoring compliance with the bathing rules

Within the bounds of what is reasonable, the Thermal Bath shall monitor compliance with the bathing rules by guests and other persons staying on premises of the Thermal Bath with the help of its responsible staff. If irregular behaviour is detected, the persons concerned will be warned and may be expelled from the premises if necessary. For the safety of bathers and to protect against vandalism, surveillance cameras are installed in the Thermal Bath.
